Bill Liberatore:

A Fervor for Music &

Travel

BY DENYCE NEILSON

As we all know, being a music educator requires a great amount of patience, logistical wizardry, a sense of humor, and an infectious passion for music that can be relayed to students. There are those teachers who fearlessly face these demands every day, and then there are those who embrace these challenges with a sense of excitement.

Gunn Choirs perform at St. Nicholas Cathedral, Prague, Czech Republic.
